THE MONEY IS COMING IN

GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS FOR THE MILITARY DINNER.

Transportation of Tables and Benches to the Camps is Provided For—Other Generous Offers Made.

The ladies who have the soldiers' Thanksgiving dinner in charge want the men seated at tables, but were afraid that the transportation of the furniture would be too costly. This stumbling block has been removed. William H. Hoogs, the manager of Hustace & Co., has generously agreed to carry the benches and tables to Wai-ale and the park free of charge. The ladies will receive this information with much satisfaction.

Another generous offer has been made by Singer's Bakery; the owner agrees to roast fifty turkeys free of any expense.

There will be no shortage of funds for the dinner. Mrs. C. B. Cooper and Miss Nellie White collected $273.50 yesterday; Mrs. F. M. Hatch collected a good sized sum also. The Star list has been added to considerably today. This is how it stands:

Previously credited	233.00
Minister S. M. Damon	100.00
E. A. Mott-Smith	10.00

IOWANS PLAY FOOTBALL.

The Clever Place-Kick Trick Twice Successfully Utilized.

The feature of yesterday's game was the place-kick goals made by the Iowa men. The play was first introduced by the Pennsylvania University team and successfully played by the Carlisle Indians. The Iowa boys rushed the pigskin within some yards of Punahou's goal and failed to gain the required five yards in two attempts to advance the ball. Suddenly the quarter fell back about ten yards, and the center snapped the ball true as a die into his hands. R. Daly, the quarter back, held the ball for a place kick, and Palmer caught it on the tip of his shoe and away the pigskin flew right between the goal posts, creating the wildest enthusiasm, and scoring the first five points of the game. In the second half this clever work was repeated.

The game ended with the score of 21 to 0 in favor of Iowa.

The grand stand was filled with people. About 1,000 soldiers were out. The visiting team had numerous friends on the line. These were the teams:

TYPEWRITERS!!

In no line of mechanics is excellence of construction of such vital importance as in Typewriters.

The PEERLESS is especially noted for its durability, simplicity and its speed.

Considering first cost only the PEERLESS is not one of the so-called "cheap machines," but looking at it from a business point of view, comparing quantity and quality of work, loss of time from breakdowns on steamer days, when the Typewriter is most needed, and cost of repairs, as well as the life of the Typewriter, the PEERLESS is without an equal and is the cheapest machine on the market.

STOOD ON BURNING DECK

OR, KATHER WARNED PEOPLE OF THE LIVE WIRE.

Nuuanu Valley Grateful to Green and Andrews—Braved the Storm to Save Life.

The following card, received at this office today, explains itself:

"The people living in Nuuanu Valley wish publicly to thank H. W. Green and Carl Andrews for averting what might have been a serious catastrophe last evening. A wire of the Hawaiian Electric Company broke and fell directly across the road in front of the residence of Henry Waterhouse, producing a circumstance similar to that on King street about three weeks ago. The gentlemen named stopped in the hard rain and warned pedestrians and drivers of the danger until the electricians arrived from the works and removed the wire."

Investigation shows that the case referred to had its parallel in some respects in the King street affair. A big rain was in progress. Just before 6 o'clock the wire was forced down by the storm. Green and Andrews had run under a neighboring tree for temporary shelter. The wire stretched across the right side of the road. Numbers of vehicles returning from the city had to pass that way. The danger was great.

The two men took up positions in the blinding storm on either side of the live wire and stopped everybody. Now and again a vehicle rushing forward to get out of the rain, would be pulled up just in time. The lives of many people were undoubtedly saved by the two men. Residents of the valley witnessed the events from their verandas. Both of the men were wringing wet during the whole performance. Andrews, especially, who was clad in a light suit, was a sight.

The electric people responded very promptly to a telephone call and soon had linemen on the scene.

DROPPED DEAD.

Old Kekahuna Falls on a Wharf and Expires Instantly.

A native named Kekahuna, aged about 60, dropped dead near Brewer's wharf this morning. Heart disease was the trouble. Deceased lived with a friend in Palama and had been in a measure an invalid for years.

The sudden death caused disturbance on the water front. It was at first thought that a bale of hay from the vessel at the wharf had struck the man. This, however, was not the case. The old fellow started to help a drayman load some hay on his rig. He fell forward over the freight and expired instantly. There was a cut over the right temple, sustained in the fall.

The body was taken to the station house. There will not be a coroner's inquest.

POLICE COURT.

Ah Tai, Tin Hop and Kum Wun were fined $50 each in Judge Wilcox's court this morning for having opium unlawfully in possession.

Punuku was given two years on the reef for larceny in the second degree.

Kaauwai was fined $5 for assault and battery on a Japanese named Tanaka.

PLANTERS' MEETING.

MISSIONARY RESOLUTION

THREE BISHOPS WILL INQUIRE INTO EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Action of Bishop Willis and His Clergy Will be a Subject of Investigation.

A large number of the community are interested in the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh outside of the congregation over which he presides. There has been much said about his status, but the following resolution which was adopted in the United States, shows that an inquiry into church matters here is to be held by high authorities. The resolution reads as follows:

MISSIONARY RESOLUTION.

Resolved, That a committee of three bishops be appointed to inquire and report to the presiding bishop, of the condition of the church in Hawaiian Islands, and what in their opinion may be the duty of this church in regard to that new territory of the United States.

The Committee—Thompson, Bishop of Mississippi; Nichol, Bishop of California; Kendrick, Bishop of New Mexico.

October 24, 1898.

The local disagreement is being attended to by lawyers of eminence and will be conducted on proper legal lines. A meeting of the lawyers and the officers of the Second Congregation will be held tomorrow evening. The whole matter will be then discussed in all its aspects, legal and ecclesiastical.

GASOLINE EXPLOSION.

Joseph Santos Severely Burned on the Arms and Face.

An explosion of gasoline vapor in Bailey's bicycle shop this morning sent Joseph Santos, an employee, to the hospital with severe and painful burns about the hands, arms and face.

Gasoline flame is used in some of the processes of bicycle repairing. The burner is enclosed in a sheet metal cabinet, the reservoir containing the gasoline being above it. In using it, it is the rule to light the gas at the burner immediately after turning the gasoline on, before the generating vapor has time to escape into the cabinet. Santos, who had frequently used the apparatus before, was about to use it again about 10 o'clock this forenoon. He turned the gasoline on, but just as he was about to light it his attention was called away by something else for a few minutes. When he returned, instead of turning off the gasoline and throwing open the cabinet to let the accumulated vapor escape, and then commence anew, he touched a match to the burner. Immediately the vapor with which the cabinet was filled leaped into a flame like an explosion. The flame burst through the seams of the cabinet and caught Santos. His hands, arms and face were scorched and burned.

J. S. Bailey, the proprietor, at once had him taken to Dr. Burgess' office, near by, where his injuries were dressed, and then sent him to the Queen's hospital, where he will remain for treatment.

The burns are all superficial, and though painful are not thought to be dangerous.

Santos is about 18 years old and is highly thought of by all who know him. His employer gives him the best of character for steadiness and carefulness.

EAGLE AND LION.

Good Feeling Between the United States and Great Britain.

SOUTHAMPTON, November 5.—A great demonstration here today signaled the departure for New York of the American line steamer St. Louis and the reopening of the American line service. The mayor of Southampton attended in state and large crowds of people cheered the American steamer. Two special steamers took the officers and their guests as far as Calshot Castle, where the farewells were exchanged.

When the steamers returned, after bidding farewell to the St. Louis, lunch was served on board the American line steamer St. Paul and toasts were drunk to the Queen and President McKinley and the Newspapers of America and England.

United States Consul Hopeley spoke to the toast The Visitors, and in so doing referred pleasantly to the cordial relations prevailing between the United States and Great Britain. His remarks were received with hearty cheers.

AFTER THE CROWN LANDS

LILIUOKALANI ON HER WAY TO WASHINGTON.

Will Present Her Claims Before Congress—Colonel Macfarlane Her Personal Representative.

Liliuokalani has gone to Washington to prosecute her claim to the crown lands before Congress.

Everything has been arranged to get the subject before that body early in the session, so that it will be up for consideration at the same time as the report of the Hawaiian commission and the legislation in regard to the government of the new territory.

Eminent opinion on the legal aspect of the claim has already been secured and a mass of information and evidence along the lines suggested and pointed out in these opinions has been secured, prepared and taken to the city of Washington. Colonel George W. Macfarlane will be Liliuokalani's personal representative in securing the presentation of the claim to Congress and in its management in committee, and will have full and exclusive control of the matter. Eminent American counsel have been retained to make argument on particular legal points involved. The names of these counsel, the friends of the ex-Queen do not at present care to divulge, but it is said that there is a surprise in store for the public when they become known.

It is intended that Congress shall be fully advised of the claim and its nature and its relation to the past legislation and present judicial status of the Islands, at the same time that the report of the Annexation Commission comes before it. So that while the attention of Congress is being directed to Hawaiian affairs, this claim will be pressed for its consideration.

Liliuokalani sailed on the Comite last evening on her way to Washington. She was accompanied only by her maid and by her physician Dr. English. A large number of her immediate friends, including Princess Kaiulani, A. S. Cleghorn, Prince David, Mrs. Carter, and others, were at the steamer to wish her bon voyage.

THE TRANSPORTS.

The Pennsylvania is scheduled to sail with the Iowa troops tomorrow morning. Efforts are being made to get the City of Puebla ready to sail at the same time.

HONORS TO GEN. KITCHENER.

The Sword Given Him a Fine Specimen of the Jeweler's Art.

LONDON, November 5.—Apart from politics the attention of London this week has been mainly directed to the ceremonies in honor of General Kitchener yesterday and to the resumption of the exposures of Hooley, the bankrupt company promoter.

The general was the guest of Queen Victoria at Balmoral during the early part of the week and he presented her majesty with many interesting relics of the battle of Omdurman. On Thursday the general went through the quaint ceremony of being admitted to the freedom of the "Fishmongers' company, and it was as a citizen and fish monger that he received the freedom of the city of London on Friday.

The sword of honor presented to General Kitchener is a magnificent specimen of the jeweler's art. The hilt is of solid gold, surmounted by the figure of the British lion, and it also bears the figures of Britannia and Justice and the monogram of the general. The scabbard is finely ornamented and inscribed with the names of the Sirdar's victories. The blade is of the finest steel, damascened near the hilt with gold.

BASEBALL TODAY.

THE GALICIAN STRIKERS

TWENTY-TWO MALCONTENTS ARE MERE BOYS.

Their Contracts are Ruled Void—Accept Offer of Manager Ahrens—Men Still Dissatisfied.

Among the number of Galician strikers from Oahu plantation it has been discovered that 22 are boys, not one of whom is over 20 years of age. Judge Wilcox, upon receiving evidence to this effect, declared that their contracts were null and void.

All of the boys were assembled in the station house yard this morning, and asked what they intended to do. They said that they wanted to work, but did not want to return to Oahu plantation. They would look around among the other plantations until they found something that suited them. Attorney General Smith was present, and, through an interpreter, explained the vagrancy law and reminded the lads that they could not hang around town for a very long period without encountering more serious trouble.

Manager Ahrens of Oahu plantation came in and made the young fellows a proposition. It was to give them $18 a month to work for him. The lunsas, he said, would treat them right. Attorney Kaulukou, who has represented the Galicians before the court, advised the boys to accept the proposition, and they did so. They will go to work tomorrow.

All the older men who were found guilty in court of deserting contract service and ordered to return to work, have refused to do so, and say they will accept the punishment prescribed by law. It remains now for the plantation to say whether the cases will be pressed against the men or not. If they are to be punished they will be sentenced to imprisonment and put to work upon the roads.

More of the cases are before Judge Wilcox in the district court this afternoon. Each man is being heard separately. In every case the court has found that the lads are of the most puerile character and not sufficient to sustain judicial interposition. There is a trace all through the tales related of outside influence, maliciously brought to bear upon the otherwise faithful and industrious Galicians.

It is a mystery how the boys came to be signed in Austria. The presumption is that they falsely stated their ages to the agents who signed the laborers.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Edna Krouse celebrated her eighth birthday yesterday by inviting a number of her little friends to the Arlington. About twenty children responded. They all had a good time with games and dancing. During the afternoon, ice cream and other dishes dear to children, were served.

READY FOR CHRISTMAS.

W. W. Dimond & Co. have already opened out for the holidays, having placed an immense stock of new goods on display. Their business house has also come in for considerable alteration and improvement. The old office room, which formerly took up so much space, has been replaced by a neat railing in the rear of the store building. The house has also been repapered and placed in pretty Christmas attire.
